Comments Regarding Professor

She is very nice and willing to answer questions. However hard to understand the material and what is necessary to succeed in the class.

Comments Regarding Course Content

All over the place. Not sure what the content is supposed to cover

Comments Regarding Professor

Very enthusiastic about the course content and is very knowledgeable. However, does not use any kind of website and almost all homework is paper and hand in class. Only time you get a sense of what your grade is would be when he starts writing down what p

Comments Regarding Professor

Professor Huang is a decent teacher. He tries to explain complex financial concepts using simple examples, which I found very helpful.

Comments Regarding Course Content

The content in this class is definitely very helpful in a corporate finance role, especially learning about the valuation methods. A lot of it is recap from earlier classes- NPV, IRR, etc. Many new concepts build on these, though, so it's important to know the basics.
