Comments Regarding Professor

Was not the biggest fan of Susan Curtis. Did not like how the class was structured and the tests were much different from the practice.

Comments Regarding Course Content

Tough but manageable. One of the harder business core classes.

Comments Regarding Professor

For an introduction to accounting course, the curriculum is unnecessarily vague at times and could be taught in a more effective way.

Comments Regarding Course Content

The content of the course was useful and should be a basic understanding for all business students.

Comments Regarding Professor

Very passionate professor, but she is kinda weird as an accounting professor. She doesn't intend to explain everything well enough, but the course is extremely easy, so self learning is the best way to pass

Comments Regarding Course Content

Easiest accounting class. Self study is the most important.

Comments Regarding Professor

Very eccentric, but very funny

Comments Regarding Course Content

The PowerPoints are released before the lecture. If you follow the PowerPoints it gives you guided answers on how to do every problem in the notespacket. I found it easier to teach myself and ask my TA any questions. The challenge problems were not helpful for me because they were not tested.

Comments Regarding Professor

Susan Curtis is a very nice and approachable professor but does not always stay on topic during lectures.

Comments Regarding Course Content

The course material is not that difficult and is very manageable as long as the student keeps up with the material. Do not wait until the night before the exam to start studying.

Comments Regarding Professor

She got off topic a lot in class but she did try to relate the material in a way that we would understand. Her class was ok but not my favorite.

Comments Regarding Course Content

I felt that the material flowed nicely it was just a lot at once. At the time it seemed too much, but looking back it was a good intro class.
