

Becoming a Values-based Leader

Please join us for the 2020 Leighton Lecture on Ethics and Leadership featuring Harry M. Jansen Kraemer, Jr., former CEO of Baxter International Inc.

Wednesday, November 11, 2020

6-6:50 pm

Via Zoom

Harry M. Jansen Kraemer, Jr. is an executive partner with Madison Dearborn Partners, a private equity firm based in Chicago, Illinois and a clinical professor of management and strategy at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management.

He is the former chairman and chief executive officer of Baxter International Inc., a $12 billion global healthcare company. His twenty-three year career at Baxter included senior positions in both domestic and international operations. He became Baxter's chief executive officer in January 1999, and he assumed the additional responsibility of chairman of Baxter's board of directors in January 2000.

In 2008 Kraemer was named the Kellogg School Professor of the Year. He is the author of two bestselling leadership books: From Values to Action: The Four Principles of Values-Based Leadership and Becoming The Best: Build a World-Class Organization Through Values-Based Leadership.
